

HENRY SCHEIN PROCURE & PAY PLATFORM

Powered by triValence

Are you ready to simplify how you order, receive, and pay for supplies? Look no further than our all-in-one procurement and payment platform. This easy-to-use solution can help you save time while providing visibility into critical data and insights that will allow you to optimize your business workflows.

BECOME MORE EFFICIENT WITH YOUR TIME

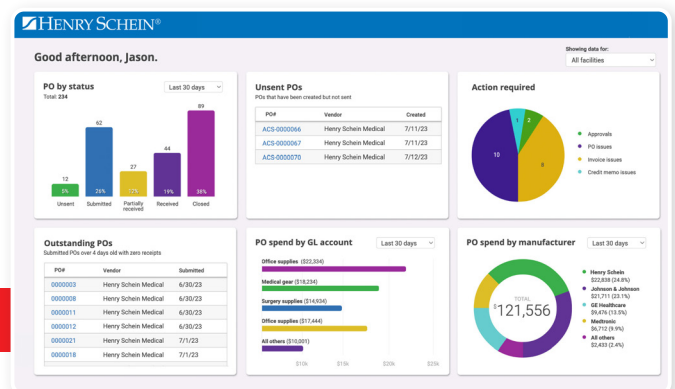

Save hours of administrative time using one platform to order supplies from your distributors and manufacturers. Your items and contracted pricing are auto-populated and frequently updated in one central hub.

AUTOMATE YOUR BUSINESS WORKFLOWS

Auto-match your orders, received goods, and invoices for easy payment reconciliation and identify discrepancies in minutes. No more inefficient, manual matching and troubleshooting, that cause delays in payment or processing.

TAKE CONTROL OF YOUR FINANCES

Effortlessly pay suppliers with one-click using your own bank accounts. Eliminate costly check runs and antiquated paper trails to get visibility into your materials spend.

ADDRESSING THE NEEDS OF TODAY.

In a recent survey*, healthcare facilities stated that their top three challenges in 2023 are:

STAFFING

The Procure & Pay Platform will alleviate staff frustration with manual and time-consuming processes and create more time in the day to accomplish other tasks.

SUPPLY CHAIN

An intuitive and unified solution, the Procure & Pay Platform enables better management of ordering, shortages, and backorders by automating your workflows.

COSTS

Combining procurement and payment into an integrated platform provides the visibility needed to identify cost savings and quality improvement opportunities in your center.
